

Bee Campus USA Annual Report Pollinator Conservation & Education 2019

Salisbury University Salisbury, Maryland

EDUCATION & OUTREACH

Honors class outdoor event April 2019

Garden tour 2019

Pollinator and Earth Week event, April 22-25, 2019

Arboretum tours - 5 to 7 in the spring and fall, (school age groups, retirees, garden clubs).

Pollinators are discussed during campus arboretum tours and in a wide variety of classes.

POLLINATOR HEALTH & HABITAT

Raised bed organic gardens managed by students

Conway Hall, students and staff,
April-May 2019, flowers and native
species

Academic Commons, students and staff, March-April 2019, flowers and native species

Perdue Hall, students and staff,
April 2019, flowers and native
species

Organic garden, students and staff,
March- April 2019, herbs and vegetables

SERVICE LEARNING

N/A

CURRICULUM & CONTINUING EDUCATION

Forestry and habitat management, for credit.

EDUCATIONAL & INTERPRETIVE SIGNAGE

Many signs for butterfly waystations.

Interpretive signs along a native species pathway created by students

POLICIES & PRACTICES

Use of vinegar, soap solution, or other least hazardous method to reduce invasive and destructive pests.

Recommended Locally Native Plant Species List —

<https://extension.umd.edu/hgic/topics/recommended-native-plants-maryland>

Regional Native Plant Supplier List — <http://www.howsweetgarden.com/>

Pollinator Friendly Integrated Pest Management Plan — not online presently

CONTACT US!

Committee — The Swarm, Wayne Shelton, wxshelton@salisbury.edu , Frank Bowen, jfbowen@salisbury.edu

Website —

<https://www.salisbury.edu/administration/administration-and-finance-offices/sustainability/bee-campus.aspx>

Social Media — not available